

Hotel/Restaurant Management

Course Description:

Discover what makes a hotel or restaurant successful. Explore job related skills in the field of Hotel and Restaurant Management.

Course Objectives:

Analyze characteristics of the hospitality tourism industry.

Analyze economic impact of tourism.

Analyze the duties and responsibilities of key executives and department heads in the hotel and restaurant industry.

Analyze management skills necessary in the hotel/restaurant industry.

Analyze the functions and activities of major divisions in hotel and restaurant organizational structure.

Course Requirements:

Participation in class discussions and activities

Completion of all written assignments and projects

Site visits to local hotels and restaurants may occur

Grading Procedures:

30 - 40% Class Participation

20 - 30% Written Work (Classwork, Homework, Notebook, etc.)

10 - 20% Projects

20% Tests and Quizzes